

Michael Forstberg appointed new Director of Online at NMP

Michael Forstberg has been appointed new Director of Online services within NMP following Hans Peter Roth's departure in late 2017. Michael (43) has a strong marketing and management background from various commercial companies and has a history from employers such as Boxer, Benjamin Media, Tivoli, SAP and Microsoft. Michael has lived and studied in the UK although he now lives in Copenhagen with his wife and daughter.

"I am very pleased that Michael has accepted the position of Online Director at NMP. This is certainly exciting times to join the music industry and NMP in particular. I am certain that Michael will contribute greatly to our journey ahead", says Malin Jonsson, CEO of NMP.

Michael starts his position on February 26th.

